From the 19th Century To the Present

A Discography Of CDs And LPs
Prepared by Michael Herman

Bohuslav Martinů (1890-1959, Czech > USA)

Born in in Polička, Bohemia. He learned the violin as a child. He attended the Prague Conservatory where he studied theory and the organ but was expelled. He later re-entered this school and studied briefly with Josef Suk but failed to graduate. He earned a living as a violinist in the Czech Philharmonic before going to Paris for private composition lessons with Albert Roussel. His reputation as a composer grew but the advent of World War II found him in America. His catalogue of compositions is enormous covering all genres from opera and ballet to solo instrumental works. Practically all of his important works have been recorded.
