

Jeäne

(Jane)

William Barnes

Judith Bailey

♩ = 72

Voice

p v.1 We now must v.2 An' we've a - v.3 An'nwone but

Piano

p

♩ = 72

mp

hope for bet - ter_ cheer my smil - in' wife of twice five year_____ Let trod the shin - in' blade of eel - grass in the sum - mer shade_____ And I can ev - er_ tell of all thy tears that have a - fell_____ When

mp

poco rit.

oth - ers frown, if thou_ bist_ near wi' hope up - on thy brow, when the leaves be - gin_ to_ fade wi' sum - mer in the wane, tri - als made thy bos - om_ swell, an' nwone but thou o' mine,

poco rit.

P A tempo più mosso

Jane;
Jane;
Jane;

A tempo più mosso

mf cresc.

f

For I first lov'd thee when thy light young shape first An' we've a wand - er'd thro' the groun' of sway - in'
An' now my heart that heav'd wi' pride back then to

f mf

p meno mosso pp

grew to wom - an's height; I lov'd thee near, an' out of sight, an wheat a - turn - in' brown, An we've a stroll'd to - geth - er roun' the have thee at my side, do love thee more as years do slide, an'

f p meno mosso pp

1.2. 3.

I do love thee now, Jane.
brook and through the lane, Jane.
leave them times be - hin',

1.2. 3.

p